

If it's not new OE,
make it an OE Factory Reman.

The best alternative replacement part.

At OE Reman Direct our parts are remanufactured to provide the best fit and finish second only to new Genuine OE. When the job requires an alternative part there is no better choice.

(Available from participating dealers.)

With these parts you can assure your customer that they are getting the best alternative to new genuine OE Parts. You, the shop owner, can provide like new repairs without making sacrifices to your bottom line.

OE Reman Direct parts are competitively priced against other traditional non-OE Parts. You'll save time and money using parts that fit and finish right the first time.
